If you are studying joint honours Literature and Criminology, then you will attend BOTH the Social Science and the Literature sessions.

*PLEASE NOTE that the sessions marked with an * will run in parallel to the other one in the same time slot, and will be accessed by the Additional Room space, detailed over the page.*

NB. Please note that all these sessions will be recorded for students who are unable to attend on the day.

Accessing the Sessions:
Access to the online space for each day of the above sessions is provided by the following instructions (NB. There are different details for each day of the event, so please read below carefully):

Tuesday 29 August
Students should click on the following link to access the meeting space through Webex:
https://uhi.webex.com/uhi/j.php?MTID=m33295ec3444fcdc4bbc79bdd0c3769d5

This is the main way of joining the meeting and we strongly encourage students to connect using this means of access. If you are joining from a PC or laptop you may be asked for a meeting number or password, which are as follows:
Meeting number: 23705133764
Password: 8FEyd7JzMD3 (83393759 from phones)

If you are joining using a smartphone or tablet you may have to download the app in the first instance. This can be done at the following link (Click on "Download Webex Teams"):
https://www.uhi.ac.uk/en/lis/online-training/cisco-webex-teams/

Once installed, open the Cisco Webex software, login with your UHI username (your ID number) and password, click on the phone icon on the left-hand side, and then enter the following into the "search or dial" bar: 23705133764@uhi.webex.com. Then click either audio or video, depending on how you wish to connect.

Wednesday 30 August
