1.6: Duration of the processing

The contractor shall process data for as long as is necessary to complete the instructions. This period will be limited to the period set by the university in its ATRB process. Contractor will not further process the personal data once this period has expired.

2. Data processor agreement general terms

2.1 Contractor will process the personal data provided only on UHI's documented instructions (Section 1), unless required to do so by domestic law; in such a case, Contractor shall inform UHI of that legal requirement before processing, unless that law prohibits such information on important grounds of public interest;

2.2 Contractor commits to confidentiality or is under an appropriate statutory obligation of confidentiality, and Contractor will not share the personal data or allow any other person to access it;

2.3 Will ensure the security of the processing, including following the instructions in Section 3;

2.4 Contractor will not share the personal data with any other person or allow any other person to access it. Contractor will not sub-contract any of the work or rights or obligations in this agreement;

2.5 Contractor will assist UHI, insofar as this is possible, with its obligations handling data subject requests. Under this contract, the personal data will remain only in the possession of UHI, meaning that a requirement for such assistance is extremely unlikely.

2.6 Contractor will assist the controller in with obligations pursuant to Articles 32 to 36 of the UK GDPR taking into account the nature of processing and the information available to Contractor. UHI considers that, given the nature of processing and the information available to Contractor, and the fact that the personal data will remain only in the possession of UHI mean that a requirement for such assistance is extremely unlikely.

2.7 at the choice of UHI Contractor will delete or returns all the personal data to UHI at the end of the provision of services, Contractor will delete any existing copies unless domestic law requires storage of the personal data. Contractor will not be required to delete the personal data unless Contractor have accidentally made a copy that is held outwith the UHI system(s) provided for accessing and using the personal data.

2.8 Contractor will make available to UHI all information necessary to demonstrate compliance with the obligations laid down in this agreement and allow for and contribute to audits, including inspections, conducted by UHI or another auditor mandated by the controller. UHI considers that such request a for information, audit or inspection to be unlikely given the nature and means of processing – including that the personal data will remain in UHI system(s) at all times.

2.9 Contractor shall immediately inform UHI if, in Contractor opinion, an instruction given to Contractor by UHI infringes the UK GDPR or other domestic law relating to data protection.

2.10 Contractor will immediately inform UHI if Contractor have any reason to believe that there may have been a data breach or data security issue concerning the UHI personal data or UHI systems used. Contractor will assist UHI, to the extent reasonable, with any investigation or response to a suspected or confirmed data security incident
