University of the Highlands and Islands Hospitality, Food & Drink Industry Research

Your information will be used for the following purposes:

The University of the Highlands and Islands is carrying out research in relation to the hospitality, food, and drink sectors, to inform the development of related curriculum. The data collected will help us to develop and adapt our support offering to underpin the needs of organisations operating in these sectors.

Our legal reasons for using the data are:

- You have given consent for the use by willingly providing answers and completing the survey
- Use is necessary for the purposes of legitimate interests pursued by us or by a third party (in respect of us contacting you with this survey and analysing the results)

The processing is undertaken under the legitimate interest of the University of the Highlands and Islands. The legitimate interest(s) of the controller or third party is:

The research and data collated will ensure that any changes made to existing or new qualifications in the subject areas of hospitality, food, and drink, are appropriate and informed by feedback from previous students, and current students. This is a beneficial and necessary exercise, with an emphasis on curriculum development. The work will positively impact on local and national businesses and employers, as well as individuals benefitting from any future training or qualifications offered.

Sharing of data:

Please note that no personal data or specifics relating to any individual or organisation will be shared out with the university.

Your data will be retained for the following length of time:

The data will be retained for up to four years, but there is no set retention period.

The following rights are rights of data subjects:

- The right to access your personal data
- The right to rectification if the personal data we hold about you is incorrect

- The right to restrict processing of your personal data

The following rights apply only in certain circumstances:

- The right to withdraw consent at any time if consent is our lawful basis for processing your data
- The right to object to our processing of your personal data
- The right to request erasure (deletion) of your personal data
- The right to data portability

You also have the right to lodge a complaint with the Information Commissioner's Office about our handling of your data.
